

NAME

COUNTY

FLOOD, AUGUSTUS EVANIER

ROBERSON COUNTY

ENLISTED

AGE

COMPANY

REGIMENT

RANK

At Camp Wyatt, Near
Wilmington, N. C.19 years of age

Company D

18th Regiment

Orderly Sergeant

1861

SERVICE RECORD

Enlisted at Camp Wyatt, near Wilmington, N. C. 1861. In May 1862 the 18th Regiment, as part of Gen. Branch's Brigade, went into Virginia and became part of Gen. A. P. Hills Division, Gen. Stonewall Jackson's Corps, Lee's Army of Northern Virginia. Participated in the battles of Manover Court House, the Seven Battles around Richmond, Second Manassas, the operations in Maryland, Harper's Ferry, Charlottesville, Gettysburg (where he was wounded) Fredericksburg, Spottsylvania Court House, Chancellorsville. At Chancellorsville his regiment was in the brigade of five regiments commanded by Gen. James H. Lane, who had succeeded Gen. Branch, slain at Sharpsburg 1864. Late in 1864 he was at Petersburg, later was on duty in the trenches and lines around Richmond and participated in the final scene of the war at Appomattox.

SOURCE

History of N. C. Vol. V By Staff of Writers (Lewis) Pages 179 - 180

Records in the War Dept., Washington, D. C.

Records in Court House, Robeson Co., Lumberton, N. C.

North Carolina Regiments (Clarke Historian Vol. 11)

Regiment 18th.