E. J. DAVIS & SONS PROPRIETORS ROBESON GOUNTY WAREHOUSE

The Robeson County Tobacco to Elairmonts tobacco business and H. H. are all experienced Warehouse the illustration of has added a great deal to the tobacco men, Mr. Davis senior which is shown above, was erect- sales as the records for the last having been in the business for ed in 1911 by Powell & Potter three years show. E. J. Davis 26 years continuously, and his and is one of the finest houses & Sons came to this market from to be found in the state. Its Page's Mill, S. C. realizing that sons for a number of years. proprietors E. J. Davis & Sons this was a better location and They also operate a warehouse are experienced tobacco men as their decision to locate here was the growth of theirbusiness since a happy one both for the town farmers have learned to know its establishment 3 years ago and the firm. The Mess. Davis, the high prices that prevail at will testify and their advent in- E. J. and his sons Messrs. F. P. their warehouse.

at Martinsville Va., and tobacco

E. J. DAVIS & SONS

to serve you ou the sale of your 1914 toracco erop.

and you deserve good prices for for it. We also know there was a large amount of land intended over the tobacco belt, we also know that all desirable tobaccos Its name the "Robeson Count" that prices will be good.

farmers will be solicited on be next Wednesday July 22nd the list for good tobacco and alike. Come to see us when rou good prices. The Companies come to markett and we will send their best representatives please you. to purchase your tobacco on our market and all the biggest tobacco Companies of the tobacco world are represented here. It should be a source of pride to all the farmers who sell their tobacco in Fairmont to know the good opinion that exist with the tobaccos buyers who use their tobaccos in their famous brands of smoking tobacco. You have es ablished the market, we have helped you all we could to establish the good reputation you now enjoy and we expect to to continue to battle for you in the future as we have in the past and by your aid and cooperation we expect to see the Fairmont market go forward by We sake pleas re mistating to leaps and bounds and be the our endomors and friends that great tobacco center of all this we are now at Fairmont realy section of county. If you have not been selling your tobacco in Fairmont you have made a mis-We want to thank each and take, ask your neighbor about every one of you for your past liberal natron ge. We expect to So join the the throng and bring continue to work hard for your your tobacco to the market when best interest. we know you have when all the companies are, relabored hard to make this crop presented, good warehouse men who know their business and how to get the high dollar.

Our house is centrally locate. for tobacco planted in corn, all easy to get in from either end, well lighted and well arrange. will be eagerly sought after and after the great County in wheh most of you live. It is run by men who know their business More markets are trying to be and have the farmers interest at established in our territory, The heart. Our opening Sale will every hand for the sale of to- and continue right on until the bacco, but why take any chan-ces. You all know the Fairmont market stands at the head of

Yours for good prices,

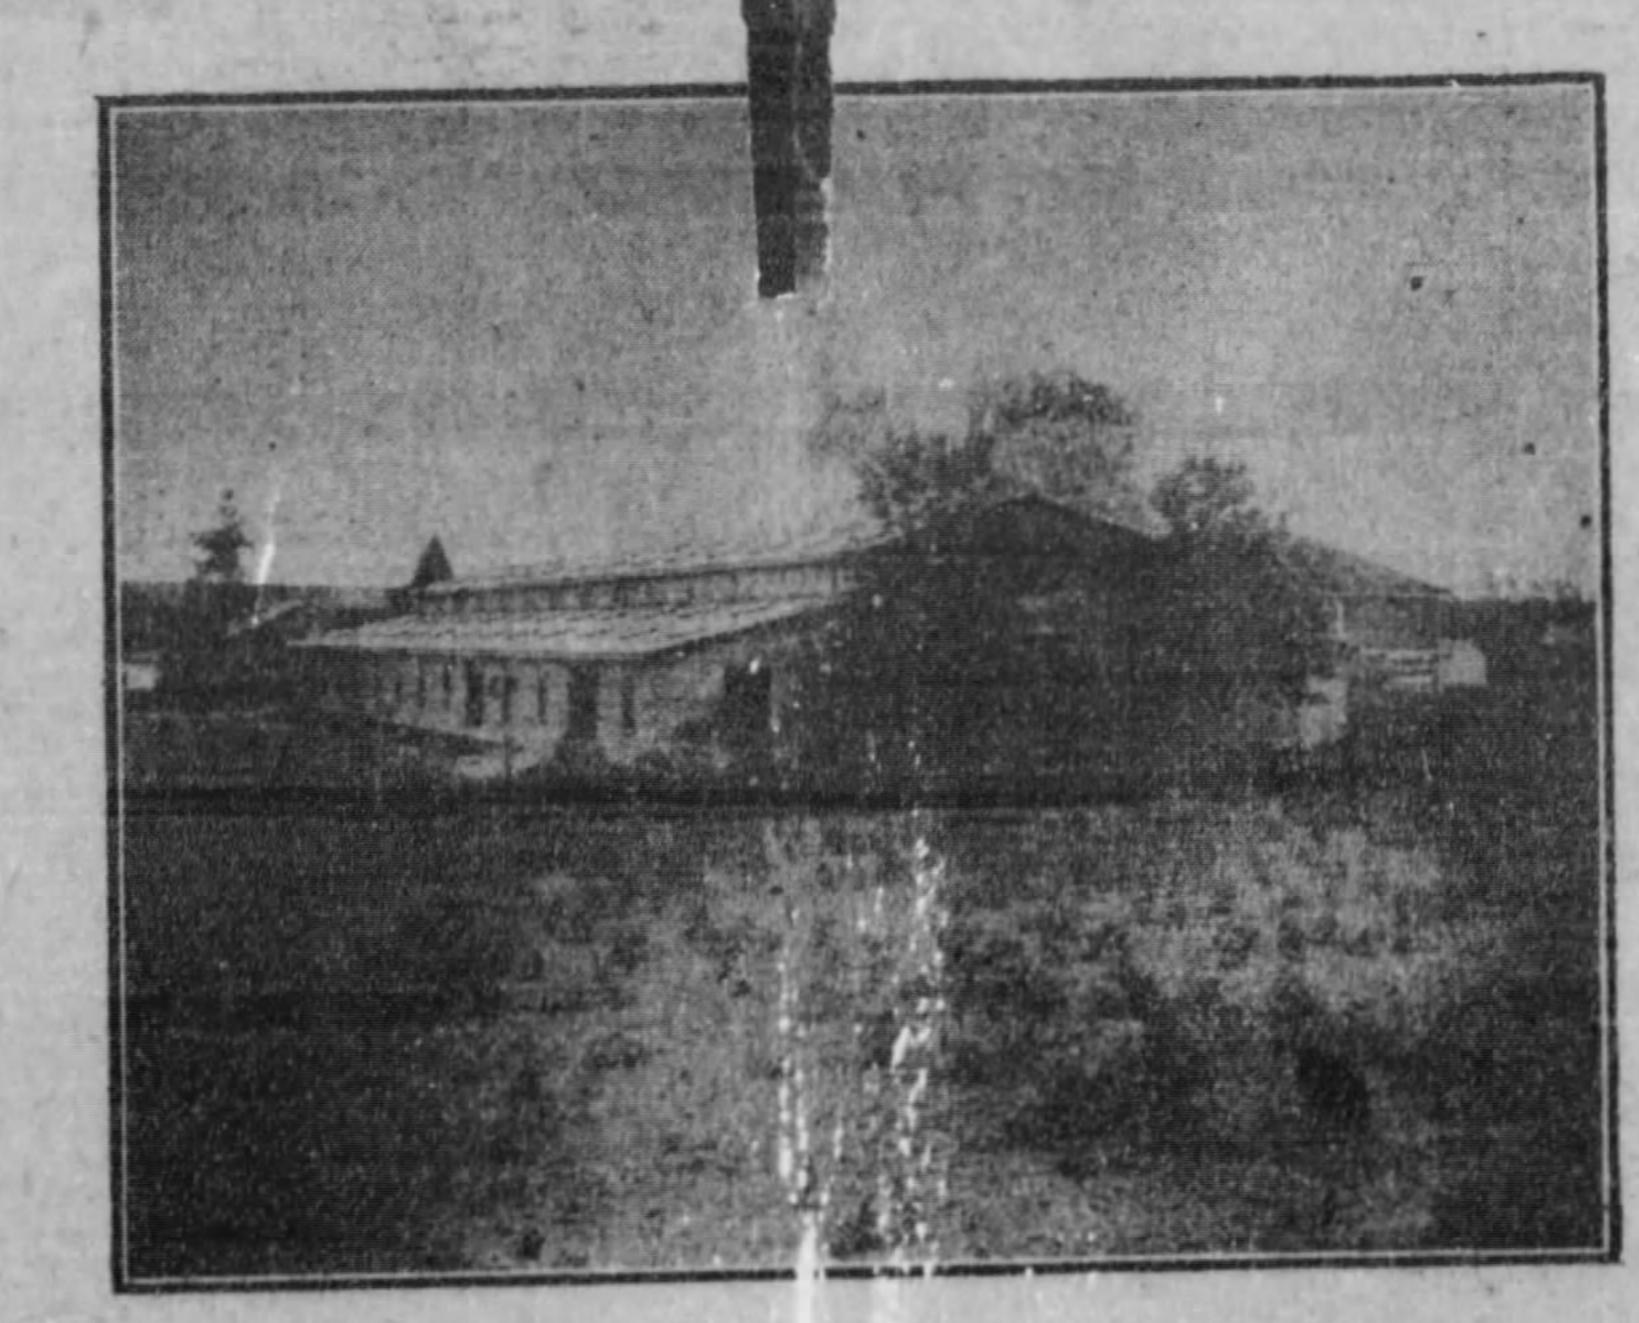

E. J. Dawis & Sons

PEMPLES!

新角角性計劃則為E.

best The Arranged,

The best Lighted,

The most up-todate Warehouse the South Carolina tobacco belt

Come to see us with your next load.

Highest prices, Courteous treatment, honest weight guaranteed